

Folktale Book Report Requirement

The Folktale book report is the first piece of the second quarter book report series. The students will read from African Folk Tales, by Hugh Vernon-Jackson. Then, they will choose one folk tale in which to complete their book report. The book report is due November 29. As always, please help your student stay on track in order to complete this report on time. Please emphasize neatness and quality of work. Use the rubric to ensure the inclusion of all components.

The second quarter book reports address the Common Core State Standards:

Recount stories, including fables and folktales from diverse cultures.
